

Newsletter – July 2026

Dear Friends and Neighbors,

As we reach the end of July, it's hard to believe that the summer months are coming to a close and another school year is just around the corner. I hope families across our community have had the opportunity to enjoy a fun and memorable summer together.

With students heading back to school in August, I want to wish everyone a wonderful start to the new school year. Here's to a year filled with new opportunities, continued growth, and success for our students, teachers, and families. Take a look at my social media to find resources for the upcoming school year, @JimSeebock on Facebook, Instagram, and LinkedIn, @Jim_Seebock on X, and @Jim-Seebock on BlueSky.

Christmas in July

I had an amazing time attending Goodwill of Southern Nevada's Christmas in July event, which brought together community partners and first responders to give 100 children from local nonprofits a memorable shopping spree. It was wonderful to be able to shop with the kids and bring them some much deserved holiday cheer in the middle of the summer.

Backpack Giveaway

I was proud to support the backpack giveaway at St. Pauls Church on Taylor Street, where 567 children received backpacks and school supplies this year. A huge thank you to Bishop Chris Moran and everyone who made the event possible.

Henderson Chamber Breakfast

At the Henderson Chamber Breakfast Meeting, guest speaker Christopher Clifford gave an informative speech about The Cliff development located in the heart of Green Valley, at Paseo Verde and I215. The project is slated to be completed next year, the open-air lifestyle, dining and retail destination will be a wonderful addition to our city.

New Clark County School District Chief of Police

I was thrilled to have the opportunity to celebrate and support my former LVMPD colleague and friend, Jeff Clark, at his swearing in ceremony as the new Chief of Police for the Clark County School District. Congratulations, and thank you for keeping our students safe.
